Introduction

Salter's Hall is a Grade II listed landmark, the last building to be designed by Sir Basil Spence, marrying the Grandeur of an ancient livery with state of the art facilities.

The Hall has recently been refurbished and extended and it is now offering 3 magnificent rooms for up to 200 guests with its own secluded garden, opening in June 2017.

Salter's Hall is perfect for conferences, receptions, private and corporate celebrations, business meetings, weddings and awards ceremonies.

Main Hall

The Main Hall is a magnificent room with ash panelling throughout. It can be used to host luncheons, dinners, banquets, seminars, wedding receptions and many other types of events.

The most prominent feature of the Hall is the high ceiling which lends itself to superb acoustics – ideal for conferences, lectures and musical evenings.

The Main Hall comes with AV equipment:

- the AV projector with PC interface, HD capability and screen
- Lectern and built-in microphone
- Blu-ray disc player and amplifier with 80db speakers
- Wifi
